

Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam."

By Willard Jones

A HAMLIN HOUSEWIFE, after spending much of the summer entertaining kinkfolk and others who were on vacation, concluded recently that . . .

In reviewing the things that are good in my life, that meet with my most fervent wishes, I find I enjoy best just sitting at ease while someone else washes the dishes.

BRUCE ESTLUND, editor of The Whitewater, Wisconsin, Register, has gained quite a reputation for his "The Bureau of Internal Revenue Address," written as a take-off on Lincoln's Gettysburg speech. It has been widely reprinted, and The Herald might as well join the procession: "Two score and four years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new misery, conceived in desperation and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created taxable. Now we are engaged in a great long form, testing whether that taxpayer, or any other taxpayer so confused and so frustrated, can long endure.

We are met on a great battlefield of that struggle. We have come to dedicate a portion of our income to the great causes, useless and foolish, which have taken our money that this nation might continue to support other nations. And yet, in a larger sense, we cannot afford, we have not got, we will not have, this hallowed money. For the brave taxpayers, broke and penniless, who paid here, have dedicated it far above our poor power to add, subtract, multiply, divide, refer to separate schedule Z, etc.

The world will little note nor long remember what we pay here, but the Bureau of Internal Revenue will never forget if we don't. It is for us, the living, rather to be here dedicated to the unfinished payments which they who made here have thus far so reluctantly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the tremendous payments still remaining before us—that from the examples of these financially bankrupt we take increased deductions for the cause for which they gave the last full measure of their money—that we here highly resolve that these paupers shall not have forked over in vain—that this taxpayer, underpaid, shall have a new birth of lower taxes and higher wages, and that government of the taxpayer, by the taxpayer, for the taxpayer, shall not perish from the earth.

SMALL GEMS is the heading of a column of sagely paragraphs appearing in a little pamphlet that came to our desk the other day. They deserve reprinting in this column:

Waste of time is the most extravagant of all expenses.

Through indecision opportunity is often lost.

If you can't look on the bright side of trouble, keep it in the dark.

Drop all thought of what you do not want; then you will have to learn to give your mental power, your enthusiasm, your imagination to thought of what you do not want.

Some salespeople are men and women of few words—but they use them a lot.

Quick thinkers become leaders; he who hesitates is bossed.

Ideas are the stuff of which progress is made.

Delegating a job is about the most difficult thing a businessman does.

It takes as much energy to wish as it does to plan.

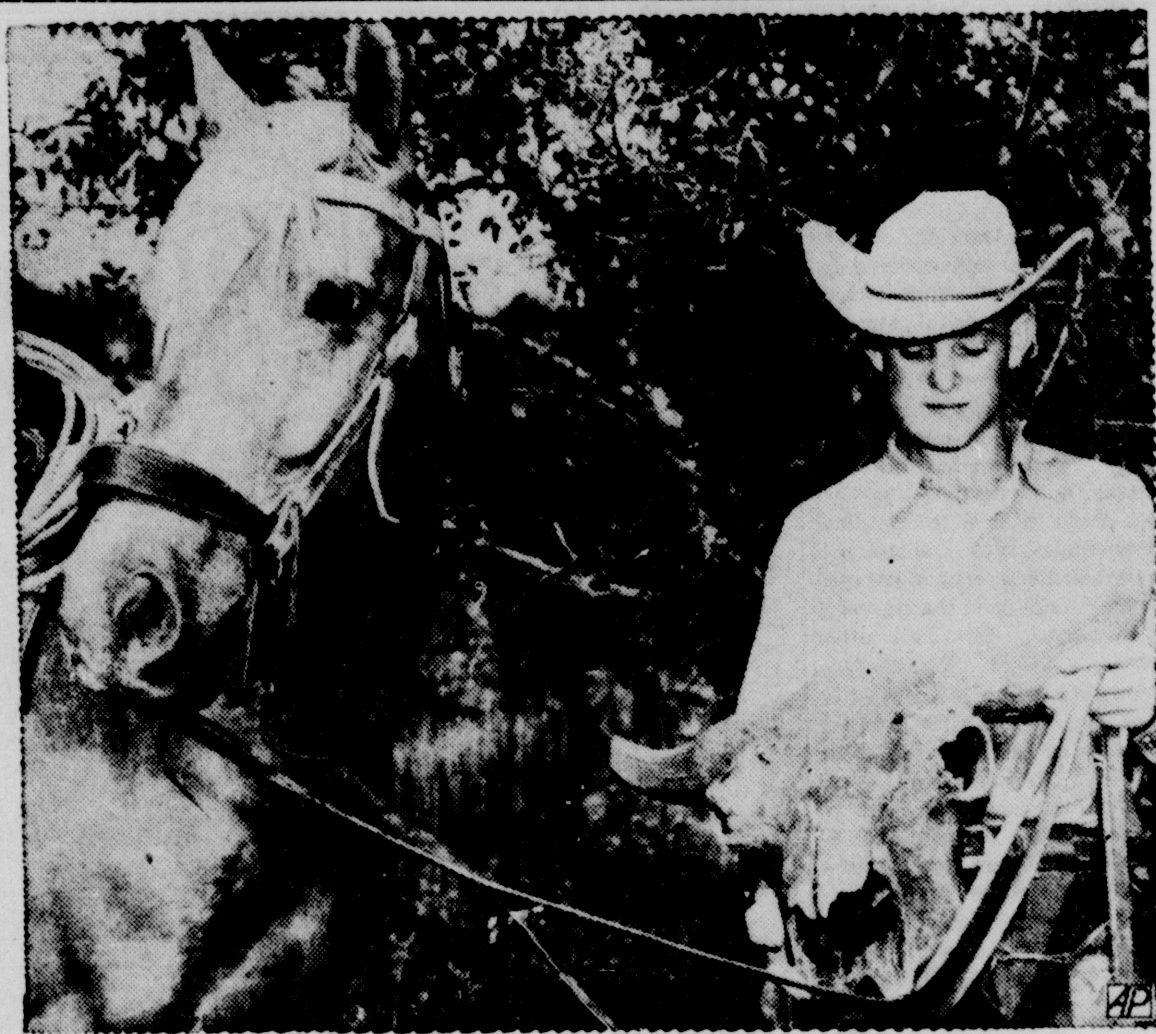

The more you lean on others the leaner your chances for success.

With ordinary talent and ordinary perseverance all things are attainable.

AUTOMOBILES of today have nearly everything one could ask for as far as comfort, ease of handling and looks are concerned.

An Anson car dealer asserts that manufacturers are turning out cars that operate and run as smooth as velvet. The only jerks in them are behind the steering wheels.

A device has been invented that emits a squawk when a driver exceeds the speed limit. Backseat drivers will resent this competition.

REMO OF THE OLD WEST—Guy Campbell, 14, holds a buffalo skull he found while riding his horse, "Yellow Cat," around the range on the Campbell Ranch near Matador. Heavy rains uncovered the relic of the Old West along a creek bank near Lost Canyon, where thundering herds of buffalo once roamed. The skull is in an almost perfect state of preservation.

Minor Changes in Soil Bank Program Scheduled in 1958

Farmers of Area Indicate Mixed Reactions to Plan

Announcement that the government's soil bank program will be continued through 1958 met with mixed reactions by farmers and ranchers of the Hamlin section. Some like the plan, others declare it stifles farming initiative.

The Department of Agriculture announced a $500,000,000 soil bank program for 1958 carrying a new regulation designed to tighten curbs on surplus crop production.

Under the major acreage reserve phase of the program, which has been in effect for the 1956 and 1957 crops, the department makes payments to farmers for planting less than their allotted acres of such surplus crops as cotton, corn, wheat, rice and tobacco.

Financial provisions for the program were contained in a Department of Agriculture appropriation bill belatedly passed by Congress two weeks ago.

Farmers who agree to retire land from these crops will be required to limit their total harvested acreage of all crops. Those who fail to abide by such agreements would lose payments and be subject to "civil penalties" equal to half the payment they otherwise would have earned.

The requirement, set up for the first time, is designed to prevent shifting of land from the major surplus crop to other crops—a practice which, if continued, will create other surpluses and add to the total over-supply of farm products, the department said.

The new program also stipulates that $3,000 will be the maximum amount any one producer will be allowed to earn under the program next year. There was no limit this year.

SOUTH'S RESISTANCE TO DESEGREGATION BASIC

Desegregation in the Deep South seems unlikely in the foreseeable future, according to recent issues of The Saturday Evening Post.

The observation is made by John Bartlow Martin in a series of articles entitled "The Deep South Says Never," a report which tells what has happened there and how the attitude of the people has undergone a change since the Supreme Court decision three years ago.

Martin, who recently won a third Benjamin Franklin Award for distinguished reporting, says that the first reaction to the court's ruling was that desegregation seem inevitable and not far off.

"At that time, the South was divided, perplexed, resigned," he comments. "Today the Solid South is a fact, and its resistance to desegregation is granitic."

Martin's report tells that an important factor in the change was the initiative demonstrated in a called meeting to mobilize public opinion through "a grass roots organization."

The outgrowth of that gathering of about 100 townfolk, in July, 1954, was an organization called the Indianola Citizens' Council.

Bright Weather Abroad

This country's foreign trade has been soaring for some years. And the trend is still strongly upward.

Writing in The New York Times, Brendan M. Jones makes a significant statement: "While the domestic business climate in recent months has been overcast with uncertainty, exporters have found the weather abroad highly stimulating." In the first four months of this year our exports were valued at more than $7,280,000,000—a gain of 28 per cent over the same period last year. So large a gain, Jones says, "is highly unusual for peacetime. And it follows the exceptional 18 per cent rise in exports in 1956 to a new high of some $19,000,000,000."

Practically all segments of the American economy—along with workers everywhere—share one way or another in the benefits produced by export trade. American farmers are particularly affected—foreign sales now take 20 to 25 per cent of our output of wheat, rice, cotton and tobacco.

What this all means is that foreign trade is a tremendously important factor in keeping good times alive in this country—and that it gives a needed lift to business and agriculture when rains occur in domestic commerce. Actually this trade can make the difference between continued prosperity and a serious recession.

Finally, the foreign trade situation provides an unassailable argument in favor of the American government's long range program for encouraging and aiding the construction and operation of a big, modern and energetic U. S. flag merchant marine. The goods that move between nations and continents move for the most part in ships. It would be the height of folly to depend for this absolutely essential service on merchant navies other than our own.

How to Deal with Bossism

Washington Report, a newspaper published by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, says: "The arrogance of union bossism, as demonstrated before Senator McClellan's select committee, finally has brought the nation to the verge of a constitutional crisis. The issue becomes unbridled, monopolistic union power vs. the nation, and Congress can deal decisively with bossism by taking two simple steps: (1) Passage of a national employee free choice law, which makes union membership voluntary; (2) application of the anti-trust laws to unions.

"Congress should act on the real issues involved and demonstrate by appropriate legislation that it is fearless of labor bosses."

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Local happenings in the Hamlin territory five years ago included the following condensed from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 22, 1952:

Good oil production from a new sand for the area, the Strawn strata, was recorded this week in the completion of the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company's No. 1 Eva Lena Johnson well, three and one-half miles southwest of Hamlin, which hit the pay around 5,200 feet. Potential test for the well has been set at 168.2 barrels.

Emergency loans for farmers and ranchers of this Central West Texas area has been sought by a group of farmers meeting Monday at Abilene with Under Secretary of Agriculture C. J. McCormick.

Little interest is seen this week in the run-off election Saturday. Sheriff Bill Dunwoody, who has held the post for 16 years, will be in a run-off with Dave Reves of Lueders for sheriff in the only race showing much interest.

ONE YEAR AGO.

Of interest in the Hamlin community a year ago were the news briefs below, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 23, 1956:

H. & M. Tire and Appliance Store has set its formal opening this week-end, according to Joe Hudspeth, one of the owners.

Nearly half a million dollars will be spent on the widening and resurfacing of the Hamlin-to-Aspermont Highway 83 under a contract just let by the State Highway Commission.

Ill Effects of Cigarette Smoking Show Incidence in Report by Cancer Group

One-half of the men and one-fourth of the women in the United States smoke cigarettes daily, according to a recent survey by the U. S. Bureau of Census. That adds up to something like 38,000,000 cigarette addicts—25,000,000 men and 13,000,000 women.

Those figures, besides revealing the extent to which the smoking habit has become ingrained among Americans, accentuate the grimness of the recently validated relationships between cigarette consumption and the general death rate, including dreaded lung cancer.

It took the American Cancer Society four years of concentrated study of the smoking habits of 188,000 men to reach these conclusions:

A 57 per cent greater death rate from diseases of the heart and circulatory system among smokers as compared to non-smokers; a 97 per cent greater cancer death rate; a 186 per cent greater death rate due to pulmonary diseases excluding cancer; and a 29 per cent greater rate of death from all other causes.

Among men over 50 with a history of regular cigarette smoking the general death rate is 52 per cent above the death rate for men who have never smoked.

The same study revealed a slight relationship between pipe smoking and lung cancer, and practically no relationship between cigar smoking and lung cancer. Present studies indicate that the reason cigarettes are more important is the cause of lung cancer than either pipes or cigars is that the tars in cigarette smoke is drawn in at much higher temperatures.

In support of statistical evidence relating smoking to cancer death rates, it is possible to prove the connection by laboratory methods. By condensing the smoke of burning cigarettes and painting the gummy tars on the shaved backs of mice or rabbits, laboratory technicians have produced cancerous growths on the animals.

The question as to whether men who smoked but quit have a lower death rate than those who have not quit has also been answered statistically. Men who quit 10 years before the study was made showed a death rate almost as low as those who had never smoked.

Should you stop smoking? You must answer that question alone. Ask yourself if the fleeting pleasures you get from cigarettes—described as "adult pacifiers" by the late William Mayo—outweigh the risks involved.

And keep in mind that the best scientific research talent in the world is convinced that steady cigarette smoking constitutes a health hazard of major proportions.

The American Cancer Society has turned its results over to the National Institute of Health for further checking.

Texas Livestock Movement Moderate As Prices Hold Steady in Most Classes

Supplies of livestock showed moderate increases at Fort Worth and all around the major marketing circle Monday, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly market summary. The release continues:

Slaughter steers were very slow. A few early sales were steady, but most bids and sales were 25 to 50 cents off and clearance was incomplete at the noon hour.

Cows were active and steady to strong, spots 25 to 50 cents higher, and canners and cutters selling to the better advantage. Bulls were unchanged.

Stockers and feeders were steady. Slaughter calves were mostly steady, some sales of the in-between grades were steady to weaker by the time a clearance was complete.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $20 to $25.25, two loads of 1,056-pound steers at the higher figure. Common and medium offerings cashed at $13 to $19.

Fat cows cashed at $12.50 to $18, and canners and cutters sold from $8 to $12.50. Bulls drew mostly $10 to $15. Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $18.50 to $22.25, and common and medium sorts sold from $13 to $18. Culls sold from $10 to $13.

Good and choice stocker steer calves sold from $20 to $23.50, and common and medium grade stockers sold from $14 to $19. Stocker steer yearlings of the better kind sold around $20 to $21, and lower grades cashed at $14 to $18. Stocker heifers and stocker heifer calves ranged from $2 to $3 under comparable steers. A few replacement cows sold from $13.50 down.

Hogs were steady to 25 cents above the low close last week. Choice hogs topped at $21.25 to $21.50, and medium to good kinds sold from $18 to $21. Sows sold from $19.50 downward.

Sheep and lambs ruled about steady, quality considered. Good to low choice slaughter lambs cashed at $20 to $21.50, and some clipped lambs cashed at $20 downward. Cull to medium lambs sold from $14 to $19. Stocker and feeder lambs cashed at $16 to $18. Good to choice slaughter yearlings sold from $17 to $18.50, and cull to medium yearlings sold from $12 to $16.

Slaughter ewes sold from $7.50 to $8.50. Old bucks drew $5 to $6. Aged wethers sold from $14.50 downward. Some solid mouthed ewes sold as stockers at $12 to $14. A few yearling ewes sold around $16.50. Shorn Angora wether goats cashed at $5 to $5.50.

Offering of cattle and calves in the special Hereford Stocker and Feeder Sale at Fort Worth August 16 was an accurate picture of the general situation. Stocker cattle and calves are scarce at this time and carrying some flesh. They are also worth a lot of money.

There were only 515 head in the sale, and these sold for $60,053 and averaged $116.41 per head straight across. The cattle were judged by C. W. Glasscock of Cresson and J. W. Humphries of Graford. The sale was jointly staged by the Hereford Association and the Market Institute.

SMALLER CHANGE

Joey, two and a half years old, took an apple to his mother who was busy in the kitchen. He handed the apple to her and said, "Please cut it up into money."

"But I don't know how to do that. I don't know what you mean," his mother replied.

"Oh, you know," said Joey, "I mean quarters."

Celotex Employees Enjoy Group Picnic at City Park Saturday

Hamlin City Park was the setting for a picnic and party for employees of the Celotex Corporation plan tat Hamlin last Saturday.

The party was sponsored by the "coke committee" of the Hamlin plant. This committee is made up of representatives of both the local union and the local management and receives its operating funds from profits from vending machines within the plant.

Youngsters enjoyed swimming at the city pool in the morning. In the afternoon members of various departments of the Celotex plant chose teams for an old fashioned baseball game.

At 6:00 p. m. employees and their families enjoyed pit barbecue beef, pork and goat, washed red beans, old fashioned boiled coffee and all other necessary trimmings for an old time barbecue dinner.

Wives of employees and office employees squared off for a game of baseball after the dinner before joining with others of the crowd at the swimming pool or a refreshing swim that ended the day's activities.

State Capitol NEWS

By Vern Sanford, Manager,
Texas Press Association.

Austin.—Things will be a bit different here and there, beginning this week. August 22 is the effective date for most of the hundreds of new laws passed by the 1957 Legislature.

Scores of the new laws will affect what you can and can't do from now on. Examples:

1. Manufacture, sale or use of dangerous fireworks are prohibited.

2. News reporters cannot be barred from precinct, county or state political conventions.

3. Parents will be liable for property destruction by their minor children.

4. Garages must report cars left over 30 days.

5. Dangerous substances, such as poisons, must be labeled.

6. Tuition fees at state colleges, beginning this fall, will be doubled.

7. Voters will have to return to the "scratch" method of marking ballots. No more putting an "X" before the name of the person to be voted for.

8. In future special elections for U. S. Senate or congressman-at-large posts, run-offs will have to be held unless one man gets a majority vote in the first primary.

9. No more combination banking insurance companies, such as the late U. S. Trust & Guaranty, can be organized.

10. License plate will cost 10 per cent more from now on to provide more money to buy right-of-way for roads.

New Agencies, Too.—Five new state agencies also enter the scene. Foremost is the new independent securities commission which will supervise both insurance and general securities issues. It combines functions formerly divided between the secretary of state's office and the State Insurance Commission.

An adult parole division under the Pardons and Paroles Board will set up the state's first paid staff to keep tabs on adults paroled from the penitentiary. It has been long sought as a means of returning more prisoners to useful citizenship.

A tax study commission will oversee an analysis of the state's entire tax structure by the Texas Research League. Could eventually lead to a shifting of tax burdens—new taxes for some, less for others.

Other new agencies are the Texas Council on Migrant Labor and the Texas Historical Survey Commission.

July Pages Cage—Two Texas grand juries, two legislative committees and lots of just plain Texans are anxious to see how Ben Jack Cage plans to "blow the lid off" in the ICT probe.

That's what Cage has said he would do when he testifies in the upcoming investigations.

He is set to appear before the Dallas County grand jury on September 3. In a surprise move, the Travis County grand jury sent Cage a subpoena to appear on August 20. But Cage wasn't there. His attorney, M. R. Irion, said he didn't know where he was, presumed he was visiting his mother in Los Angeles, and indicated he would not return to Texas until September 3.

Travis and Dallas County grand juries both face an October 1 adjournment. District Attorney Lee Proctor of Austin said Travis County had no desire to be "first" in Texas' major reservoirs now is in questioning Cage, but that they were merely working against a shortage of time. Dallas District Attorney Henry Wade said he preferred to have Cage testify there first, but that his appearance in Austin would neither help nor hurt the Dallas County investigation.

Also summoning Cage is the new House general investigating committee which has sent out a subpoena for August 26, and directed Texas Rangers and the Department of Public Safety to search for him. Chairman of the committee, appointed recently by Speaker Waggoner Carr, is Reagan Huffman of Marshall. Members are Representatives H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, Carl C. Conley of Raymondville, William L. Elliott of Pasadena and Joe N. Chapman of Sulphur Springs.

Senator Charles Herring of Austin has been named by Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey as chairman of the Senate's new investigating group which also is interested in what Cage has to say about ICT affairs. Herring said, however, that there was no use in the House and Senate committees "plowing the same ground." Since the House already has summoned Cage, and it's a question whether he will be asked to appear also before the Senate group.

Serving with Herring on the Senate committee are Senators Culp Krueger of El Campo, Jarrod Secrest of Temple, Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and Frank Owen III of El Paso.

Crops Improve.—Picture looks brighter than expected for Texas' 1957 crops, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

USDA estimates the state's cotton crop for this year at 3,775,000 bales. It is four per cent better than last year and about average for the past 10 years.

Other official crop estimates: Wheat, 35,000,000 bushels, a million more than originally expected; corn, 39,200,000 bushels, 43 per cent above last year; hay, 2,000,000 tons, second largest crop on record; peanuts, 205,000,000 tons, a 23 per cent increase over last year.

Pecans, 70,000,000 pounds, a 10 per cent better than last year but four per cent below average; peaches, 765,000 bushels, highest since 1933; pears, 195,000 bushels, 10 per cent below average but highest since 1933; citrus fruit, prospects favorable but no estimate; sweet potatoes, 1,020,000 hundredweight, 63 per cent above last year; Irish potatoes, 1,170,000 hundredweight, 24 per cent above last year.

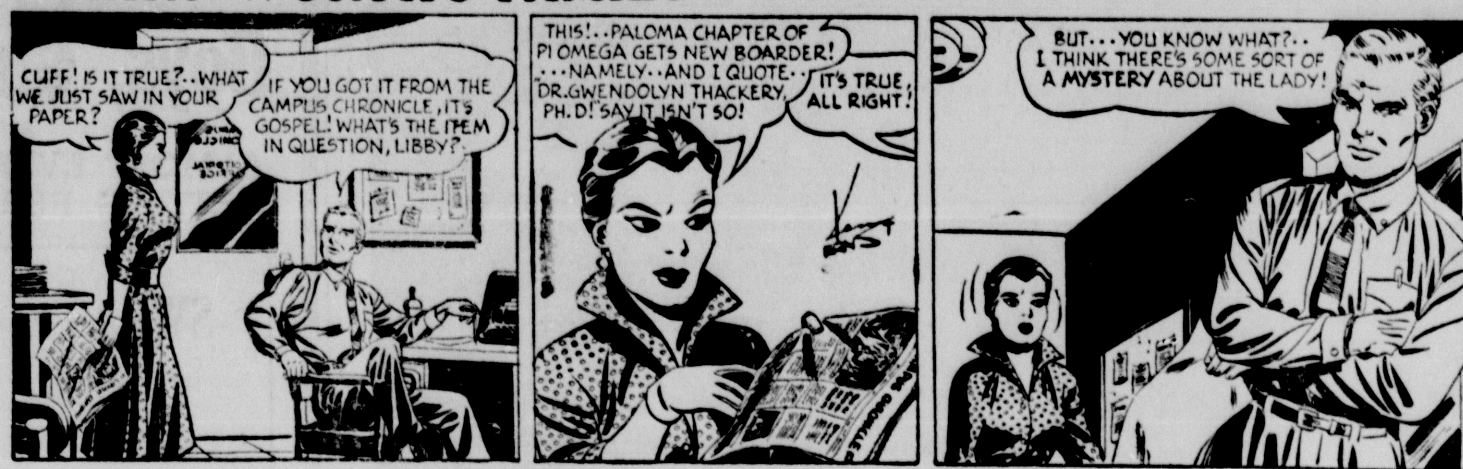

Flu Epidemic Seen.—Texas "almost certainly" will have an epidemic of Asiatic flu this fall and winter, say state health officials.

Basis for this prediction is the laboratory samples of virus obtained from Texas patients by the State Health Department. It's a highly communicable strain, says the department's director, Dr. Henry A. Holle. He advised people to be vaccinated as soon as possible.

But availability of vaccine still is a question mark. Production is being rushed, and some cities are setting up priority schedules. Workers performing essential services, such as doctors, nurses, policemen and firemen, will get preference.

Short Shorts.—Water storage

almost double what it was a year ago, says the State Water Board. Overall, reservoirs are at 90 per cent of capacity. Streams have returned to "somewhat normal conditions." A sharp drop in paralytic polio is noted by the State Health Department. Only eight paralytic cases, 13 non-paralytic, were reported through the first week in August. Improvement is attributed to Salk vaccine. Claude B. Tate has been named assistant state auditor, replacing William A. Harrison, who is serving as insurance commissioner. Dr. LaRoy Noyes has been appointed director of the Livestock Sanitary Commission, effective September 1.

Awarding of a contract for just under $1,000,000 to air condition the House and Senate chambers has been announced by the building commission. Low bid was $990,600. More than a year's delay in getting this project underway irked some lawmakers who had ordered the cooling system for the last session. New contracts negotiated for the purchase of gasoline for state vehicles will save the state $60,000 during the coming fiscal year, according to the Board of Control. The electron of an atom moves around in a tiny orbit at the rate of 85,000 miles a second. It's probably nervous.

Army Repair Course Taken by Johnson

Private Donald L. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson of 1012 Southeast Avenue B in Hamlin, recently was graduated from the Army's eight-week automotive maintenance school at Fort Chaffee, Arkansas. Johnson received instruction in the maintenance, repair and inspection of light and heavy duty military vehicles. He was graduated from Hamlin High School in 1955.

There's always room at the top, even for prices, but by now the place must be terribly crowded.

FITS FOR THE ONE.

OFFSHORE RIG CAPSIZES—An offshore oil drilling rig lies in the Gulf of Mexico about 60 miles south of New Orleans, after it collapsed, injuring three. About 20 other crewmen were rescued by boats. A Gulf Oil Company spokesman said the tripod legs collapsed, dropping the rig into 25 feet of water at a 45-degree list. The drilling rig, valued at $1,200,000, was owned by Deepwater Exploration Company of Houston, and under contract to Gulf Oil Company.

R. V. Teague, 84, Dies Last Friday At Big Spring

Funeral services for another West Texas old-timer, Robert Vance Teague, 84-year-old father of S. A. Teague of Hamlin, were conducted Friday afternoon at the First Methodist Church.

The 84-year-old Hamlin resident for more than half a century died of pneumonia last Thursday in a Big Spring hospital where he had been ill for two months. He had been seriously ill for four days.

Born August 17, 1873, at Paris, Texas, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Albert Teague. He married the former Lizzie Huff at Cottonwood on October 2, 1892. The newlyweds established their home at Cross Plains, and moved to the Hamlin area 65 years ago where they engaged in farming until their retirement several years ago. They had operated the Hamlin Hotel for several years.

Officiating at the Friday rites were Rev. E. W. Robb, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. Henry C. Adair, pastor of Faith Methodist Church.

Burial was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were grandsons of the octogenarian.

Surviving the pioneer are his wife, Mrs. Lizzie Huff Teague of Hamlin; three sons, R. S. Teague of Abilene, S. C. Teague of Lubbock and S. A. Teague of Hamlin; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Jones County Boys Attend 4-H Electrical Training at Vernon

Darrell Black of Anson and Cleveland Garrett of Avoca attended the District III 4-H Club electric school in Vernon last Thursday, according to Bill Lehmberg, county agent, and assistant, Ray Walker. The event is sponsored by the West Texas Utilities Company, with headquarters in Abilene.

The boys were instructed in the use of infra-red lighting in brood-in gaud heating by W. S. Allen, agriculture engineer with the extension service. Instruction on constructing an economical pig brooder was the main topic.

Bob Jaska of the agriculture engineering department of Texas A. & M. College gave the boys a demonstration on evaporative cooling of farm buildings. This type cooling can be used on any animals that are kept in closed buildings, such as laying hens, beef calves and broilers, it was pointed out.

Revival at Fairview Closes Saturday with Ice Cream Supper

The revival closed Sunday night at the Fairview Baptist Church, six miles east of Hamlin and much good was done, declare members of the congregation.

Rev. Dan Cozart, pastor of the Hobbs Baptist Church in Fisher County, did the preaching, and John Adams and wife of Abilene had charge of the song services.

Rev. Cozart is a member of the Gospelaires Quartet of KRBC-TV, and last Thursday night the quartet sang to a packed house.

Saturday night, after services, an old-time ice cream supper and fellowship meeting was held in the church yard. Thirteen freezers of cream were counted, so a good time and Christian fellowship was enjoyed by all.

The pastor, Rev. M. E. Randolph, expressed his deep appreciation to all who participated in the services.

SONNY STUBBS VISITS. Sonny Stubbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stubbs, former Hamlin residents, came by to see the Herald force last Thursday. He is visiting in Hamlin. Sonny helped The Herald, his next door neighbors, print a number of editions of the paper four years ago before moving to Knox City.

St. Crispin is the patron saint of shoemakers.

Jack Russell Tells Lions About New Rules for Football

Jack Russell of Hamlin football referee and member of the West Texas Officials Association, brought members and guests of the Lions Club up-to-date on grid rules when he spoke as the program feature at the weekly luncheon meeting of the civic group Tuesday at noon at the oil mill guest house.

Russell, mail carrier by profession and referee as a hobby, declared fans of the area had improved greatly in attitude toward game officials and the rules recently because of a better understanding of the rules generally as a result of an education program by officials at civic clubs and other group gatherings.

Russell pointed out new rulings that will this season regulate coaching boxes, face masks, passing interference, rear blocking and clipping, and sideline coaching. He said most changes in rules this year favor the offensive team because fans want high scoring in games.

Presenting a brief musical program were Walter Miers, guitarist, RaVonna Keisler, pianist, and Betty Joy McGinnis, vocalist, from Fisher County. County Agent James Norman of Fisher County, who brought the group over, made announcement of the annual fair and rodeo this week-end at Roby.

Besides the program principals, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon included Orville Tolbert of Henderson, Heart Association organizer; Ray Harvey of Anahuac; and Jack Wood, Wayne Shultz, Charles Smith and Dick Whitcomb, employees of the Celotex Corporation plant at Fort Dodge, Iowa, who were here on an inspection trip of the Hamlin Celotex plant.

Elvis Presley Leaves Theater Mysteriously

Somebody really went all out for Elvis Presley in Hamlin Tuesday night—in fact, Elvis went out himself.

Advertising a show featuring the lover boy and crooner that began showing at the Ferguson Theater Wednesday was a six-foot life size cut-out of Elvis. Left in the lobby of the theater, it was purloined by somebody during the evening, reports Manager Harold Barnes.

Barnes has offered a month's pass to the theater for information leading the the recovery of Elvis, who was to have been given to some girl attendant at the show Friday evening.

FIRES ARE COSTLY.

Recent rains have diminished the dangers of grass and woodland fires in some areas, but the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council warns that grass fires pose a real threat for livestock producers. Motorists and rural residents are urged by the council to observe fire safety rules. Community and county organizations are suggested as effective means of fighting grass fires.

AVOIDING THE SIGNS.

A neighbor child enjoys making cookies to share with young visitors. However, little Cindy and her still smaller sister from across the street would never accept a cookie.

To the child's question, "Why won't you eat one?" Cindy replied: "Because if we do my mother said she would put a sign on our back, 'Don't feed these chills.'"

Traveling Checks buy LESS

Do you habitually take a 25 or 30 per cent discount on the personal checks that you write?

Many people do . . . without realizing it. It's the hidden penalty they pay for the privilege of spending their money in somebody else's town or city.

Take a moment to consider facts: Only about 70 cent of each dollar we spend goes to pay for the actual goods or service that we get. About 30 cents of that dollar has to cover the necessary expenses of the community where the sale is made . . . to pay the people who work there . . . to return something on the capital invested . . . to help support civic facilities such as churches, schools, fire and police protection, road and street maintenance, etc.

Of course, when we spend our money away from home we get no personal benefit whatever from the 30 per cent of it which goes for community business and social improvement.

Doesn't it follow, then, that when we give checks or money for out of town purchases, nearly one-third of the amount goes for something we don't get? Isn't that just the same as discounting our checks or money? Is it sound economics?

Nearly 100 Present For Old-Timers Reunion Thursday

Nearly 100 old-timers of the Fairview, Wise Chapel and Abbie communities, southeast of Hamlin, were present for the annual pioneer day celebration last Thursday at the oil mill guest house. Actually 80 guests were registered, officials report.

After preliminary greetings and other activities that began about 9:00 o'clock, a bountiful picnic lunch was served at noon.

Bro. Underwood, a pioneer preacher, made an interesting talk. Mrs. Hewett gave a reading. Spurgeon Reeves of Anson assisted in singing many songs that were favorites to the old-timers.

Pioneers were present from Fort Worth, Dallas, Abilene, Amarillo, Spur, Lamesa, Midland, Stamford, Anson, Ovalo, Temple and many other places.

A prize was given to D. L. Bristow of Hamlin for being the oldest person present. And Mrs. Kate Smith of Dallas was also given a prize for coming the longest distance to the session.

Following the election of officers for the group, the pioneers set the next meeting for the third Tuesday in August, 1958, being August 21.

OLD-TIMERS VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson of Oklahoma City are guests of Mrs. Robinson's sister, Mrs. W. R. Townsend, and family. Robinson attended a Robinson family reunion in Knox City Sunday. The old-timer was city marshal of Hamlin from 1907 till 1910.

Louie Cunningham Tells Rotary Club About Hospital

Hamlin Memorial Hospital, recently completing a new addition, is now one of the finest and best equipped little institutions of its kind in Central West Texas, members and guests of Hamlin Rotary Club were told at their Wednesday luncheon meeting last week at the oil mill guest house by Louie Cunningham, business manager of the hospital.

Cunningham, who had a blueprint of the new addition, showed the arrangement of the new section, which will bring the total bed patient capacity of the hospital to 40.

Cunningham traced the formation of the hospital association by Bowen Pope, former Herald publisher, in 1945 to completion of the first building in 1948, which was done without outside financial assistance, Hamlin community residents subscribed for stock in the non-profit organization. A second wing was added in 1950 to bring the value of the hospital to $107,000.

The new $60,000 east wing provides space for new reception and business offices, doctors' offices, x-ray and laboratory rooms and a modern operating room. The old section formerly devoted to these rooms is being converted into patient rooms, Cunningham said.

With three resident physicians and surgeons, three registered nurses, four laboratory technicians, four x-ray technicians and 12 student nurses, the hospital is well staffed, the business manager pointed out.

Secretary John Howard Jr. reported that the July attendance of the Hamlin club was 90.32 per cent.

Besides the speaker, other visitors at the Wednesday luncheon included Ed Ireland and O. T. Copeland of Sweetwater, W. M. Blackburn of Stamford, Theo Pearson of Abilene and Herman McBride.

Season Grid Tickets Go on Sale Monday At School Offices

Season football tickets for the Hamlin High School Pied Piper 1957 schedule will go on sale Monday as previously announced, according to Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook.

Regular prices for the five home games of the Pied Pipers will be $6.25, but the same seats for all the games will be sold for $5 in the sale beginning Monday, it is pointed out, thus affording a saving of $1.25 for the group.

The tickets and a layout of the football stadium will be on display at the school business office at the high school principal's section on the south side of the lobby, Cook says. Purchasers may choose their seats from the chart.

Fifty-six people in the community hold options on season tickets, and these options will be observed for a limited time.

A HAMLIN HOUSEWIFE, after spending much of the summer entertaining kinfolks and others who were on vacation, concluded recently that . . .

In reviewing the things That are good in my life, That meet with my most fervent wishes, I find I enjoy best Just sitting at ease While someone else washes the dishes.

BRUCE ESTLUND, editor of The Whitewater, Wisconsin, Register, has gained quite a reputation for his "The Bureau of Internal Revenue Address," written as a take-off on Lincoln's Gettysburg speech. It has been widely reprinted, and The Herald might as well join the procession:

"Two score and four years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new misery, conceived in desperation and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created taxable. Now we are engaged in a great long form, testing whether that taxpayer, or any other taxpayer so confused and so frustrated, can long endure.

We are met on a great battlefield of that struggle. We have come to dedicate a portion of our income to the great causes, useless and foolish, which have taken our money that this nation might continue to support other nations. And yet, in a larger sense, we cannot afford, we have not got, we will not have, this hallowed money. For the brave taxpayers, broke and penniless, who paid here, have dedicated it far above our poor power to add, subtract, multiply, divide, refer to separate schedule Z, etc.

The world will little note nor long remember what we pay here, but the Bureau of Internal Revenue will never forget if we don't. It is for us, the living, rather to be here dedicated to the unfinished payments which they who made here have thus far so reluctantly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the tremendous payments still remaining before us—that from the examples of these financially bankrupt we take increased deductions for the cause for which they gave the last full measure of their money—that we here highly resolve that these paupers shall not have forked over in vain—that this taxpayer, underpaid, shall have a new birth of lower taxes and higher wages, and that government of the taxpayer, by the taxpayer, for the taxpayer, shall not perish from the earth.

SMALL GEMS is the heading of a column of sagely paragraphs appearing in a little pamphlet that came to our desk the other day. They deserve reprinting in this column:

Minor Changes in Soil Bank Program Scheduled in 1958

Farmers of Area Indicate Mixed Reactions to Plan

Announcement that the government's soil bank program will be continued through 1958 met with mixed reactions by farmers and ranchers of the Hamlin section. Some like the plan, others declare it stifles farming initiative.

The Department of Agriculture announced a $500,000,000 soil bank program for 1958 carrying a new regulation designed to tighten curbs on surplus crop production.

Under the major acreage reserve phase of the program, which has been in effect for the 1956 and 1957 crops, the department makes payments to farmers for planting less than their allotted acres of such surplus crops as cotton, corn, wheat, rice and tobacco.

Financial provisions for the program were contained in a Department of Agriculture appropriation bill belatedly passed by Congress two weeks ago.

Farmers who agree to retire land from these crops will be required to limit their total harvested acreage of all crops. Those who fail to abide by such agreements would lose payments and be subject to "civil penalties" equal to half the payment they otherwise would have earned.

The requirement, set up for the first time, is designed to prevent shifting of land from the major surplus crop to other crops—a practice which, if continued, will create other surpluses and add to the total over-supply of farm products, the department said.

The new program also stipulates that $3,000 will be the maximum amount any one producer will be allowed to earn under the program next year. There was no limit this year.

Enrollment Reaches Record 184 at DePriest

Record enrollment of 184 students has been recorded for the 1957-58 term of school at DePriest Colored School, reports Principal E. S. Morgan. Previous high enrollment was 162.

Besides pupils from the Hamlin territory, high school students are coming to the Hamlin school from Aspermont, Rotan, Roby and McCaulley by bus. A new bus is operating in the Hamlin section to pick up children.

Eighth Teacher for DePriest School Here Added This Week

Another member was added to the faculty of DePriest Colored School this week, reports E. S. Morgan, principal of the school, which has already been in operation three weeks.

The new teacher is Mrs. Dollie P. Brown, who is teaching the first and second grades. She replaces Mrs. E. F. Ford in these grades, since the homemaking department has been expanded and Mrs. Ford is devoting three-fourths of her time to that division.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Prairie View College at Hempstead and Jarvis College of Hawkins. She holds a BA degree, having majored in elementary education and minored in music. She is living with Mrs. Bertha Jones.

Addition of Mrs. Brown to the faculty brings the total number of teachers at DePriest to eight.

SOUTH'S RESISTANCE TO DESEGREGATION BASIC

Desegregation in the Deep South seems unlikely in the foreseeable future, according to recent issues of The Saturday Evening Post.

The observation is made by John Bartlow Martin in a series of articles entitled "The Deep South Says Never," a report which tells what has happened there and how the attitude of the people has undergone a change since the Supreme Court decision three years ago.

Martin, who recently won a third Benjamin Franklin Award for distinguished reporting, says that the first reaction to the court's ruling was that desegregation seem inevitable and not far off.

"At that time, the South was divided, perplexed, resigned," he comments. "Today the Solid South is a fact, and its resistance to desegregation is granitic."

Martin's report tells that an important factor in the change was the initiative demonstrated in a called meeting to mobilize public opinion through "a grass roots organization."

The outgrowth of that gathering of about 100 townsfolk, in July, 1954, was an organization called the Indianola Citizens' Council.

This, it is reported, was the first citizens' council, a movement that in a few months swept the South and gave loud voice to the Southern resistance to school desegregation.

Martin finds that this resistance movement is a remarkable achievement since it has uncompromisingly set its face against the mainstream of American thought as expressed by the Supreme Court of the land—and has thus far gotten away with it.

Elsewhere in the report, Martin explains that, to Southerners, the court's decision seemed to do far more than break down segregation in the schools; it rent the seamless garment of apartness.

"Aartness of the races," he tells Post readers, "is a black and white thread woven into the fabric of Southern life—its social, political, sexual, cultural, economic life. Apartness is like a vine which, rooted in slavery, never uprooted, but merely twisted by the Civil War, flourished and by now entangles everyone and everything in a suffocating net from which no one, white or black, knows how to extricate himself.

"Its manifestations have an infinite richness and complexity."

Bright Weather Abroad

This country's foreign trade has been soaring for some years. And the trend is still strongly upward.

Writing in The New York Times, Brendan M. Jones makes a significant statement: "While the domestic business climate in recent months has been overcast with uncertainty, exporters have found the weather abroad highly stimulating." In the first four months of this year our exports were valued at more than $7,280,000,000—a gain of 28 per cent over the same period last year. So large a gain, Jones says, "is highly unusual for peace-time. And it follows the exceptional 18 per cent rise in exports in 1956 to a new high of some $19,000,000,000."

Practically all segments of the American economy—along with workers everywhere—share one way or another in the benefits produced by export trade. American farmers are particularly affected—foreign sales now take 20 to 25 per cent of our output of wheat, rice, cotton and tobacco.

What this all means is that foreign trade is a tremendously important factor in keeping good times alive in this country—and that it gives a needed lift to business and agriculture when rains occur in domestic commerce. Actually this trade can make the difference between continued prosperity and a serious recession.

Finally, the foreign trade situation provides an unassailable argument in favor of the American government's long range program for encouraging and aiding the construction and operation of a big, modern and energetic U. S. flag merchant marine. The goods that move between nations and continents move for the most part in ships. It would be the height of folly to depend for this absolutely essential service on merchant navies other than our own.

How to Deal with Bossism

Washington Report, a newspaper published by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, says: "The arrogance of union bossism, as demonstrated before Senator McClellan's select committee, finally has brought the nation to the verge of a constitutional crisis. The issue becomes unbridled, monopolistic union power vs. the nation, and Congress can deal decisively with bossism by taking two simple steps: (1) Passage of a national employee free choice law, which makes union membership voluntary; (2) application of the anti-trust laws to unions.

"Congress should act on the real issues involved and demonstrate by appropriate legislation that it is fearless of labor bosses."

Accidents Cost Money, Too

The pay envelopes of America's workers were short $1,100,000,000 last year. This wage loss was the result of time lost because of work accidents, the National Safety Council says.

Costs of work accidents rose about eight per cent last year, according to "Accident Facts," statistical yearbook of the council.

Just off the press, the booklet shows that medical expenses increased to about $400,000,000 and overhead costs of insurance went up to $450,000,000.

Damaged equipment and materials, production delays and time losses of other workers not involved in the accidents cost industry $1,800,000,000.

Total cost of work accidents was estimated at $3,750,000,000.

Editorial of the Week

CHALLENGE TO A STATESMAN

Mr. Kishi has returned to Japan with a set of Ben Hogan golf clubs, a promise to improve his score by 10 before he visits Washington again, and an American pledge to withdraw combat troops "promptly" from Japan.

In the United States, Mr. Kishi's trip was a success. The Japanese premier, a new face in the field of international politics, was tactful and friendly, and withal gave an impression of strength. He showed imagination when he spoke of the problems of Asia as a whole rather than of Japan alone. He reaffirmed Japan's ties with the United States but frankly said that he hoped Japan might soon regain control political over Okinawa.

In Japan, however, reactions to the Kishi trip have been mixed. The press tended to discount the importance of the projected withdrawal of American combat troops. There was disappointment that the premier had not had his way over Okinawa. And there was continuing unrest over the Girard case.

In short, so far Mr. Kishi has only fulfilled half of his trip's purpose: Greater understanding for Japan in the United States.

Now comes the more difficult part: To obtain greater understanding for the United States in Japan. Only a statesman sure of his political strength in his own country can undertake such a task. Will Mr. Kishi accept the challenge?—The Christian Science Monitor.

ONE YEAR AGO.

Of interest in the Hamlin community a year ago were the news briefs below, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 23, 1956:

Ill Effects of Cigarette Smoking Show Incidence in Report by Cancer Group

One-half of the men and one-fourth of the women in the United States smoke cigarettes daily, according to a recent survey by the U. S. Bureau of Census. That adds up to something like 38,000,000 cigarette addicts—25,000,000 men and 13,000,000 women.

Those figures, besides revealing the extent to which the smoking habit has become ingrained among Americans, accentuate the grimness of the recently validated relationships between cigarette consumption and the general death rate, including dreaded lung cancer.

It took the American Cancer Society four years of concentrated study of the smoking habits of 188,000 men to reach these conclusions:

A 57 per cent greater death rate from diseases of the heart and circulatory system among smokers as compared to non-smokers; a 97 per cent greater cancer death rate; a 186 per cent greater death rate due to pulmonary diseases excluding cancer; and a 29 per cent greater rate of death from all other causes.

Among men over 50 with a history of regular cigarette smoking the general death rate is 52 per cent above the death rate for men who have never smoked.

The same study revealed a slight relationship between pipe smoking and lung cancer, and practically no relationship between cigar smoking and lung cancer. Present studies indicate that the reason cigarettes are more important is the cause of lung cancer than either pipes or cigars is that the tars in cigarette smoke is drawn in at much higher temperatures.

In support of statistical evidence relating smoking to cancer death rates, it is possible to prove the connection by laboratory methods. By condensing the smoke of burning cigarettes and painting the gummy tars on the shaved backs of mice or rabbits, laboratory technicians have produced cancerous growths on the animals.

The question as to whether men who smoked but quit have a lower death rate than those who have not quit has also been answered statistically. Men who quit 10 years before the study was made showed a death rate almost as low as those who had never smoked.

Should you stop smoking? You must answer that question alone. Ask yourself if the fleeting pleasures you get from cigarettes—described as "adult pacifiers" by the Mayo Clinic—outweigh the risks involved.

And keep in mind that the best scientific research talent in the world is convinced that steady cigarette smoking constitutes a health hazard of major proportions.

The American Cancer Society has turned its results over to the National Institute of Health for further checking.

Three Hamlin Girls Take Twirling at TCU

With 108 high school students from Texas and New Mexico completing the twirling school at Texas Christian University at Fort Worth last week, the annual TCU fine arts summer workshop came to a close.

Among attendants at the week-long school were Brenda Lynette Fincannon, Judith Kay Ford and Martha Jane Gage of Hamlin.

during June, 1957, and 11.80 per cent more than the daily sales during July, 1956.

Texas Livestock Movement Moderate As Prices Hold Steady in Most Classes

Supplies of livestock showed moderate increases at Fort Worth and all around the major marketing circle Monday, declares Ted Goudy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly market summary. The release continues:

Slaughter steers were very slow. A few early sales were steady, but most bids and sales were 25 to 50 cents off and clearance was incomplete at the noon hour.

Cows were active and steady to strong, spots 25 to 50 cents higher, and canners and cutters selling to the better advantage. Bulls were unchanged.

Stockers and feeders were steady. Slaughter calves were mostly steady, some sales of the in-between grades were steady to weaker by the time a clearance was complete.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $20 to $25.25, two loads of 1,056-pound steers at the higher figure. Common and medium offerings cashed at $13 to $19.

Fat cows cashed at $12.50 to $18, and canners and cutters sold from $8 to $12.50. Bulls drew mostly $10 to $15. Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $18.50 to $22.25, and common and medium sorts sold from $13 to $18. Culls sold from $10 to $13.

Good and choice stocker steer calves sold from $20 to $23.50, and common and medium grade stockers sold from $14 to $19. Stocker steer yearlings of the better kind sold around $20 to $21, and lower grades cashed at $14 to $18. Stocker heifers and stocker heifer calves ranged from $2 to $3 under comparable steers. A few replacement cows sold from $13.50 down.

Hogs were steady to 25 cents above the low close last week. Choice hogs topped at $21.25 to $21.50, and medium to good kinds sold from $18 to $21. Sows sold from $19.50 downward.

Sheep and lambs ruled about steady, quality considered. Good to low choice slaughter lambs cashed at $20 to $21.50, and some clipped lambs cashed at $20 downward. Cull to medium lambs sold from $14 to $19. Stocker and feeder lambs cashed at $16 to $18. Good to choice slaughter yearlings sold from $17 to $18.50, and cull to medium yearlings sold from $12 to $16.

Slaughter ewes sold from $7.50 to $8.50. Old bucks drew $5 to $6. Aged ewes sold from $14.50 downward. Some solid mouthed ewes sold as stockers at $12 to $14. A few yearling ewes sold around $16.50. Shorn Angora wether goats cashed at $5 to $5.50.

Offering of cattle and calves in the special Hereford Stocker and Feeder Sale at Fort Worth August 16 was an accurate picture of the general situation. Stocker cattle and calves are scarce at this time and carrying some flesh. They are also worth a lot of money.

There were only 515 head in the sale, and these sold for $60,053 and averaged $116.41 per head straight across. The cattle were judged by George Glascock of Cresson and by Humphries of Gratiot. The sale was jointly staged by the Hereford Association and the Market Institute.

Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration Slated September 14 at Post

Twenty-six candidates are in the race for Post Jubilee queen, with the winner to be crowned on opening night of the city's four-day fiftieth anniversary celebration, September 14.

Also to be chosen from among the 26 hopefuls are a duchess and six attendants. The queen and her court will be official hostesses for the celebration.

Meanwhile, rehearsals are underway on "Caprock Cavalcade," which will tell the story of Post's history. The cast will include 350 people.

A highlight of the celebration is to be dedication of a platform on which a life-size bronze statue of C. W. Post, the town's founder, will be erected later. The memorial circle which will enclose the statue is being constructed on the Garza County courthouse lawn.

SMALLER CHANGE

Joey, two and a half years old, took an apple to his mother who was busy in the kitchen. He handed the apple to her and said, "Please cut it up into money."

"But I don't know how to do that. I don't know what you mean," his mother replied.

"Oh, you know," said Joey, "I mean quarters."

Hamlin City Park was the setting for a picnic and party for employees of the Celotex Corporation plan tat Hamlin last Saturday.

The party was sponsored by the "cock committee" of the Hamlin plant. This committee is made up of representatives of both the local union and the local management and receives its operating funds from profits from vending machines within the plant.

Youngsters enjoyed swimming at the city pool in the morning. In the afternoon members of various departments of the Celotex plant chose teams for an old fashioned baseball game.

At 6:00 p. m. employees and their families enjoyed pit barbecued beef, pork and goat, washed down with old fashioned coffee and all other necessary trimmings for an old time barbecue dinner.

State Capitol NEWS

By Vern Sanford, Manager, Texas Press Association.

Austin.—Things will be a bit different here and there, beginning this week. August 22 is the effective date for most of the hundreds of new laws passed by the 1957 Legislature.

Scores of the new laws will affect what you can and can't do from now on. Examples:

1. Manufacture, sale or use of dangerous fireworks are prohibited.
2. News reporters cannot be barred from precinct, county or state political conventions.
3. Parents will be liable for property destruction by their minor children.
4. Garages must report cars left over 30 days.
5. Dangerous substances, such as poisons, must be labeled.
6. Tuition fees at state colleges, beginning this fall, will be doubled.
7. Voters will have to return to the "scratch" method of marking ballots. No more putting an "X" before the name of the person to be voted for.
8. In future special elections for U. S. Senate or congressman-at-large posts, run-offs will have to be held unless one man gets a majority vote in the first primary.
9. No more combination banking insurance companies, such as the late U. S. Trust & Guaranty, can be organized.
10. License plate will cost 10 per cent more from now on to provide more money to buy right-of-way for roads.

New Agencies, Too.—Five new state agencies also enter the scene. Foremost is the new independent securities commission which will supervise both insurance and general securities issues. It combines functions formerly divided between the secretary of state's office and the State Insurance Commission.

An adult parole division under the Pardons and Paroles Board will set up the state's first paid staff to keep tabs on adults paroled from the penitentiary. It has been long sought as a means of returning more prisoners to useful citizenship.

A tax study commission will oversee an analysis of the state's entire tax structure by the Texas Research League. Could eventually lead to a shifting of tax burdens—new taxes for some, less for others.

Other new agencies are the Texas Council on Migrant Labor and the Texas Historical Survey Commission.

Jury Pages Cage.—Two Texas grand juries, two legislative committees and lots of just plain Texans are anxious to see how Ben Jack Cage plans to "blow the lid off" in the ICT probe.

That's what Cage has said he would do when he testifies in the upcoming investigations.

He is set to appear before the Dallas County grand jury on September 3. In a surprise move, the Travis County grand jury sent Cage a subpoena to appear on August 20. But Cage wasn't there. His attorney, M. R. Irion, said he didn't know where he was, presumed he was visiting his mother in Los Angeles, and indicated he would not return to Texas until September 3.

Travis and Dallas County grand juries both face an October 1 adjournment. District Attorney Lee Proctor of Austin said Travis County had no desire to be "first" in Texas' major reservoirs now is in questioning Cage, but that they were merely working against a shortage of time. Dallas District Attorney Henry Wade said he preferred to have Cage testify there first, but that his appearance in Austin would neither help nor hurt the Dallas County investigation.

Also summoning Cage is the new House general investigating committee which has sent out a subpoena for August 26, and directed Texas Rangers and the Department of Public Safety to search for him. Chairman of the committee, appointed recently by Speaker Waggoner Carr, is Reagan Huffman of Marshall. Members are Representatives H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, Carl C. Conley of Raymondville, William L. Elliott of Pasadena and Joe N. Chapman of Sulphur Springs.

Senator Charles Herring of Austin has been named by Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey as chairman of the Senate's new investigating group which also is interested in what Cage has to say about ICT affairs. Herring said, however, that there was no use in the House and Senate committees "plowing the same ground." Since the House already has summoned Cage, and it's a question whether he will be asked to appear also before the Senate group.

Serving with Herring on the Senate committee are Senators Culp Krueger of El Campo, Jarrod Secrest of Temple, Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and Frank Owen III of El Paso.

Crops Improve.—Picture looks brighter than expected for Texas' 1957 crops, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

USDA estimates the state's cotton crop for this year at 3,775,000 bales. It is four per cent better than last year and about average for the past 10 years.

Other official crop estimates: Wheat, 35,000,000 bushels, a million more than originally expected; corn, 39,200,000 bushels, 43 per cent above last year; hay, 2,000,000 tons, second largest crop on record; peanuts, 205,000,000 tons, a 23 per cent increase over last year.

Pecans, 70,000,000 pounds, a 10 per cent better than last year but four per cent below average; peaches, 765,000 bushels, highest since 1953; pears, 195,000 bushels, 10 per cent below average but highest since 1953; citrus fruit, prospects favorable but no estimate; sweet potatoes, 1,020,000 hundredweight, 63 per cent above last year; Irish potatoes, 1,170,000 hundredweight, 24 per cent above last year.

Flu Epidemic Seen.—Texas "almost certainly" will have an epidemic of Asiatic flu this fall and winter, say state health officials.

Basis for this prediction is the laboratory samples of virus obtained from Texas patients by the State Health Department. It's a highly communicable strain, says the department's director, Dr. Henry A. Holle. He advised people to be vaccinated as soon as possible.

But availability of vaccine still is a question mark. Production is being rushed, and some cities are setting up priority schedules. Workers performing essential services, such as doctors, nurses, policemen and firemen, will get preference.

Short Shorts.—Water storage

almost double what it was a year ago, says the State Water Board. Overall, reservoirs are at 90 per cent of capacity. Streams have returned to "somewhat normal conditions." . . . A sharp drop in paralytic polio is noted by the State Health Department. Only eight paralytic cases, 15 non-paralytic, were reported through the first week in August. Improvement is attributed to Salk vaccine. . . . Claude B. Tate has been named assistant state auditor, replacing William A. Harrison, who is serving as insurance commissioner. . . . Dr. LaRoy Noyes has been appointed director of the Livestock Sanitary Commission, effective September 1.

. . . Awarding of a contract for just under $1,000,000 to air condition the House and Senate chambers has been announced by the building commission. Low bid was $990,600. More than a year's delay in getting this project underway arked some lawmakers who had ordered the cooling system for the last session. . . . New contracts negotiated for the purchase of gasoline for state vehicles will save the state $60,000 during the coming fiscal year, according to the Board of Control.

The electron of an atom moves around in a tiny orbit at the rate of 85,000 miles a second. It's probably nervous.

Army Repair Course Taken by Johnson

Private Donald L. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson of 1012 Southeast Avenue B in Hamlin, recently was graduated from the Army's eight-week automotive maintenance school at Fort Chaffee, Arkansas. Johnson received instruction in the maintenance, repair and inspection of light and heavy duty military vehicles.

He was graduated from Hamlin High School in 1955. There's always room at the top, even for prices, but by now the place must be terribly crowded.

Revival Continues at North Central Church

Fair crowds and good interest have featured revival services of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church, which are underway this week, reports the pastor, Rev. Woodrow McHugh. The services, which began last Friday, will continue through Sunday evening.

Doing the preaching is Rev. Bill Crafton, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church at Stamford. Services

REALLY APPROPRIATE.
Minister—"And when I get through with my sermon I'll ask those of the congregation who want to contribute $5 toward the mortgage on the church to stand up. In the meantime, you play appropriate music."
Organist—"What do you mean, appropriate music?"
Minister—"You play 'The Star-Spangled Banner.'" are held at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., McHugh announces.

OFFSHORE RIG CAPSIZES—An offshore oil drilling rig lies in the Gulf of Mexico about 60 miles south of New Orleans, after it collapsed, injuring three. About 20 other crewmen were rescued by boats. A Gulf Oil Company spokesman said the tripod legs collapsed, dropping the rig into 25 feet of water at a 45-degree list. The drilling rig, valued at $1,200,000, was owned by Deepwater Exploration Company of Houston, and under contract to Gulf Oil Company.

R. V. Teague, 84, Dies Last Friday At Big Spring

Funeral services for another West Texas old-timer, Robert Vance Teague, 84-year-old father of S. A. Teague of Hamlin, were conducted Friday afternoon at the First Methodist Church.

The 84-year-old Hamlin resident for more than half a century died of pneumonia last Thursday in a Big Spring hospital where he had been ill for two months. He had been seriously ill for four days.

Born August 17, 1873, at Paris, Texas, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Albert Teague. He married the former Lizzie Huff at Cottonwood on October 2, 1892. The newlyweds established their home at Cross Plains, and moved to the Hamlin area 65 years ago where they engaged in farming until their retirement several years ago. They had operated the Hamlin Hotel for several years.

Officiating at the Friday rites were Rev. E. W. Robb, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. Henry C. Adair, pastor of Faith Methodist Church.

Burial was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were grandsons of the octogenarian.

Surviving the pioneer are his wife, Mrs. Lizzie Huff Teague of Hamlin; three sons, R. S. Teague of Abilene, S. C. Teague of Lubbock and S. A. Teague of Hamlin; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

SONNY STUBBS VISITS.

Sonny Stubbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stubbs, former Hamlin residents, came by to see the Herald force last Thursday. He is visiting in Hamlin. Sonny helped The Herald, his next door neighbors, print a number of editions of the paper four years ago before moving to Knox City.

Jones County Boys Attend 4-H Electrical Training at Vernon

Darrell Black of Anson and Cleveland Garrett of Avoca attended the District III 4-H Club electric school in Vernon last Thursday, according to Bill Lehman, county agent, and assistant, Ray Walker. The event is sponsored by the West Texas Utilities Company, with headquarters in Abilene.

The boys were instructed in the use of infra-red lighting in brooding and heating by W. S. Allen, agriculture engineer with the extension service. Instruction on constructing an economical pig brooder was the main topic.

Bob Jaska of the agriculture engineering department of Texas A. & M. College gave the boys a demonstration on evaporative cooling of farm buildings. This type cooling can be used on any animals that are kept in closed buildings, such as laying hens, beef calves and broilers, it was pointed out.

Revival at Fairview Closes Saturday with Ice Cream Supper

The revival closed Sunday night at the Fairview Baptist Church, six miles east of Hamlin and much good was done, declare members of the congregation.

Rev. Dan Cozart, pastor of the Hobbs Baptist Church in Fisher County, did the preaching, and John Adams and wife of Abilene had charge of the song services.

Rev. Cozart is a member of the Gospelaires Quartet of KRBC-TV, and last Thursday night the quartet sang to a packed house.

Saturday night, after services, an old-time ice cream supper and fellowship meeting was held in the church yard. Thirteen freezers of cream were counted, so a good time and Christian fellowship was enjoyed by all.

The pastor, Rev. M. E. Randolph, expressed his deep appreciation to all who participated in the services.

Jack Russell Tells Lions About New Rules for Football

Jack Russell of Hamlin football referee and member of the West Texas Officials Association, brought members and guests of the Lions Club up-to-date on grid rules when he spoke as the program feature at the weekly luncheon meeting of the civic group Tuesday at noon at the oil mill guest house.

Russell, mail carrier by profession and referee as a hobby, declared fans of the area had improved greatly in attitude toward game officials and the rules recently because of a better understanding of the rules generally as a result of an education program by officials at civic clubs and other group gatherings.

Russell pointed out new rulings that will this season regulate coaching boxes, face masks, passing interference, rear blocking and clipping, and sideline coaching. He said most changes in rules this year favor the offensive team because fans want high scoring in games.

Presenting a brief musical program were Walter Miers, guitarist, RaVonna Keisler, pianist, and Betty Joy McGinnis, vocalist, from Fisher County. County Agent James Norman of Fisher County, who brought the group over, made announcement of the annual fair and rodeo this week-end at Roby.

Besides the program principals, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon included Orville Tolbert of Henderson, Heart Association organizer; Ray Harvey of Anahuac; and Jack Wood, Wayne Shultz, Charles Smith and Dick Whitcomb, employees of the Celotex Corporation plant at Fort Dodge, Iowa, who were here on an inspection trip of the Hamlin Celotex plant.

Elvis Presley Leaves Theater Mysteriously

Somebody really went all out for Elvis Presley in Hamlin Tuesday night—in fact, Elvis went out himself.

Advertising a show featuring the lover boy and crooner that began showing at the Ferguson Theater Wednesday was a six-foot life size cut-out of Elvis. Left in the lobby of the theater, it was purloined by somebody during the evening, reports Manager Harold Barnes.

Barnes has offered a month's pass to the theater for information leading the recovery of Elvis, who was to have been given to some girl attendant at the show Friday evening.

FIRES ARE COSTLY.

Recent rains have diminished the dangers of grass and woodland fires in some areas, but the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council warns that grass fires pose a real threat for livestock producers. Motorists and rural residents are urged by the council to observe fire safety rules. Community and county organizations are suggested as effective means of fighting grass fires.

AVOIDING THE SIGNS.

A neighbor child enjoys making cookies to share with young visitors. However, little Cindy and her still smaller sister from across the street would never accept a cookie.

To the child's question, "Why won't you eat one?" Cindy replied: "Because if we do my mother said she would put a sign on our back, 'Don't feed these children.'"

Traveling Checks buy LESS

Do you habitually take a 25 or 30 per cent discount on the personal checks that you write?

Many people do . . . without realizing it. It's the hidden penalty they pay for the privilege of spending their money in somebody else's town or city.

Take a moment to consider facts: Only about 70 cent of each dollar we spend goes to pay for the actual goods or service that we get. About 30 cents of that dollar has to cover the necessary expenses of the community where the sale is made . . . to pay the people who work there . . . to return something on the capital invested . . . to help support civic facilities such as churches, schools, fire and police protection, road and street maintenance, etc.

Of course, when we spend our money away from home we get no personal benefit whatever from the 30 per cent of it which goes for community business and social improvement.

Doesn't it follow, then, that when we give checks or money for out of town purchases, nearly one-third of the amount goes for something we don't get? Isn't that just the same as discounting our checks or money? Is it sound economics?

Nearly 100 Present For Old-Timers Reunion Thursday

Nearly 100 old-timers of the Fairview, Wise Chapel and Abbie communities, southeast of Hamlin, were present for the annual pioneer day celebration last Thursday at the oil mill guest house. Actually 80 guests were registered, officials report.

After preliminary greetings and other activities that began about 9:00 o'clock, a bountiful picnic lunch was served at noon.

Bro. Underwood, a pioneer preacher, made an interesting talk. Mrs. Hewett gave a reading. Spurgeon Reeves of Anson assisted in singing many songs that were favorites to the old-timers.

Pioneers were present from Fort Worth, Dallas, Abilene, Amarillo, Spur, Lamesa, Midland, Stamford, Anson, Ovalo, Temple and many other places.

A prize was given to D. L. Bristow of Hamlin for being the oldest person present. And Mrs. Kate Smith of Dallas was also given a prize for coming the longest distance to the session.

Following the election of officers for the group, the pioneers set the next meeting for the third Tuesday in August, 1958, being August 21.

OLD-TIMERS VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson of Oklahoma City are guests of Mrs. Robinson's sister, Mrs. W. R. Townsend, and family. Robinson attended a Robinson family reunion in Knox City Sunday. The old-timer was city marshal of Hamlin from 1907 till 1910.

Louie Cunningham Tells Rotary Club About Hospital

Hamlin Memorial Hospital, recently completing a new addition, is now one of the finest and best equipped little institutions of its kind in Central West Texas, members and guests of Hamlin Rotary Club were told at their Wednesday luncheon meeting last week at the oil mill guest house by Louie Cunningham, business manager of the hospital.

Cunningham, who had a blueprint of the new addition, showed the arrangement of the new section, which will bring the total bed patient capacity of the hospital to 40.

Cunningham traced the formation of the hospital association by Bowen Pope, former Herald publisher, in 1945 to completion of the first building in 1948, which was done without outside financial assistance, Hamlin community residents subscribed for stock in the non-profit organization. A second wing was added in 1950 to bring the value of the hospital to $107,000.

The new $60,000 east wing provides space for new reception and business offices, doctors' offices, x-ray and laboratory rooms and a modern operating room. The old section formerly devoted to these rooms is being converted into patient rooms, Cunningham said.

With three resident physicians and surgeons, three registered nurses, four laboratory technicians, four x-ray technicians and 12 student nurses, the hospital is well staffed, the business manager pointed out.

Secretary John Howard Jr. reported that the July attendance of the Hamlin club was 90.32 per cent.

Besides the speaker, other visitors at the Wednesday luncheon included Ed Ireland and O. T. Copeland of Sweetwater, W. M. Blackburn of Stamford, Theo Pearson of Abilene and Herman McBride.

HAD WRONG IDEA.

Jerry—"When my father was in college he was a champion hurdler."

Joe—"How long did it take him to become a hurdler?"

Jerry—"Six years."

Joe—"Isn't that an unusually long time?"

Jerry—"Not when you consider that for the first four years Papa thought he had to crawl under them."

Season Grid Tickets Go on Sale Monday At School Offices

Season football tickets for the Hamlin High School Pied Piper 1957 schedule will go on sale Monday as previously announced, according to Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook.

Regular prices for the five home games of the Pied Pipers will be $6.25, but the same seats for all the games will be sold for $5 in the sale beginning Monday, it is pointed out, thus affording a saving of $1.25 for the group.

The tickets and a layout of the football stadium will be on display at the school business office at the high school principal's section on the south side of the lobby, Cook says. Purchasers may choose their seats from the chart.

Fifty-six people in the community hold options on season tickets, and these options will be observed for a limited time.
